KNOWLEDGE QUARTER INTRODUCTION

ABOUT THE KNOWLEDGE QUARTER

The Knowledge Quarter (KQ) is a partnership of over 85 academic, cultural, research, scientific and media organisations all located in a one-mile radius around King's Cross, Euston Road and Bloomsbury. Possibly, the greatest cluster knowledge cluster of knowledge-based institutions anywhere in the world.

The KQ's partners range from internationally significant research institutes to emerging organisations in the creative industries. Partners include the British Museum, the University of the Arts London, Google, the Digital Catapult, Wellcome Trust and the British Library. All are involved in the creation or dissemination of knowledge.

Its mission is to encourage openness, innovation, networking and opportunity by making the facilities, collections and expertise of our members understood, available and used as widely as possible for the benefit of researchers, creative people, students and the whole community.

KNOWLEDGE QUARTER PRIORITIES

The Knowledge Quarter works with its partners to develop and deliver activities under each of its four key strategic priorities:

Knowledge Exchange: The Knowledge Quarter will facilitate knowledge exchange and identify opportunities for openness, collaboration, networking and efficiencies.

Community Engagement: The Knowledge Quarter will increase access to resources and collections and create opportunities for local community engagement.

Public Realm Environment and Sustainability: The Knowledge Quarter will identify and support work that improves our local sustainable environment.

Advocacy and Communications: The Knowledge Quarter will increase the area's profile through advocacy and stakeholder engagement.

COMMUNITY CHAMPIONS

ABOUT THE KNOWLEDGE QUARTER

The Community Champions project is a series of events designed to bring Knowledge Quarter (KQ) partners together with local charities and community groups, in order to encourage KQ partners to develop collaborative projects around the themes of youth, employability, environment, wellbeing and nexus.

Alongside these events a series of bespoke skills workshops will be delivered by Knowledge Quarter partners to support local charities and community groups, on topics including fundraising, social media and governance. This is true knowledge sharing in practise.
